

Where to find products made in America

Etsy.com

Etsy.com is a community of artisans and artists that sells its products in an online marketplace. Products are in categories such as jewelry, furniture, and “geekery.”

www.USAonly.US

Launched on July 4, 2010, USAonly lists companies that make their products in the United States. With emphasis on smaller, mom-and-pop companies, the website currently features 320 companies. The website is interactive and keeps track of how many employed Americans are represented by the companies listed.

MadeHereInAmerica.com

MadeHereInAmerica.com is an easy-to-use directory of consumer products that are made in the United States. Company descriptions include what percentage of products are made in America.

Patriot

Patriot sells a variety of made-in-America products, from clothing to tools, and everything in between.

AmericanMadeProducts.com

Headquartered in Bridgeport, Mich., AmericanMadeProducts.com Inc. sells more than 9,000 products made, manufactured or assembled in America.

MadeinAmericaStuff.com

MadeinAmericaStuff.com sells products made in the U.S.A. The website is based in Houston.

AmericansWorking.com

This website is a searchable directory of goods made in the United States, with categories ranging from air cleaners to vitamins.

MadeInUSAForever.com

Nearly 2,300 products made in the United States are available for purchase.

StillMadeInUSA.com

StillMadeInUSA is a directory of American-made products. Click on a category and you’ll be directed to links to companies across the country with manufacturing in the United States. Each link includes a description of the company and lets you know where it’s located.

MadeInUSA.org

The website is a product search engine and database for those looking for products made in the United States.

MadeUSAFdn.org

The Made in the USA Foundation is a not-for-profit organization that promotes products manufactured and assembled in America. Clicking on “Shop USA” brings you to a category list where you can access links to companies’ websites.

BuyAmerican.com

Links to companies selling products made in the USA.